MURFREESBORO NOTES.

The Benevolent Order No. 11 held their annual service at the Mt. Zion Baptist Church last Sunday. Rev. Henderson preached their sermon. The Daughters of the Union Order No. 4 will hold their annual service at Allen's Chapel A. M. E. Church Sunday, May 28th, at 2 p. m. Rev. R. Hicks will conduct the service. The First Baptist Church will give a $2 rally on the 3rd Sunday in June. The pastor will preach a special sermon on that day. On Tuesday night, May 16, 1911, The Bradley's Academy Literary Society, rendered their annual program at Allen's Chapel. The house was packed to its uttermost capacity. The program was two plays, "From Feudalism to Freedom." The famous "Lovers of all ages," Miss M. E. Howland conducted. Each one played his part well. On Thursday night, May 18th at Keys Chapel, the Primary Grades rendered their beautiful program which is as follows:

- Song—Gratitude by school.
- May-day—a class of girls.
- Six scenes from Hiawatha:

1. The Pipe of Peace.
2. Child of Hiawatha.
3. Hiawatha Shoots the Deer.
4. The Arrow-maker and his Daughter.

5. The Wooing.
6. The Wedding Feast.

The next was Parasol maidens and Rainy Daisies; the Flower Party. The songs with one hundred voices were most beautiful; it showed that the pupils had been well trained by Misses Elma Williams, Ella C. Darden and Johnnie O'Neal. The exercises were concluded Friday morning, May 19th at 10 o'clock a. m. In the school chapel, which was packed with visitors. The band began playing and the graduating class marched in led by Miss Lura H. Meeks, carrying a lovely bunch of pink Carnations and evergreens. A more beautiful sight has not been presented here at any time. The rendition of the program was splendid. The class papers and literary addresses were interspersed with musical and elocutionary features. The principal presented the members of the class with diplomas. Class Roll: Misses Mary Green, Ianthia Henderson, Idella Hatton, Laura H. Meeks, Sephie Orante Miller, Mattie L. Smith, Carrie R. Watkins, Messrs. Earnest D. Floyd and Wynnie Eugene Ransom. Class Colors: Royal Purple and Red. Class motto: "Work and Win." Class flower: White Rose. Mrs. Howland Bright has returned to Fayetteville after a two month's visit to her parents.
